

Opportunities for Building Managers & Owners

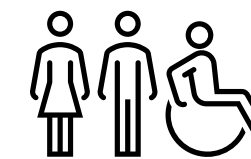

Waste Management

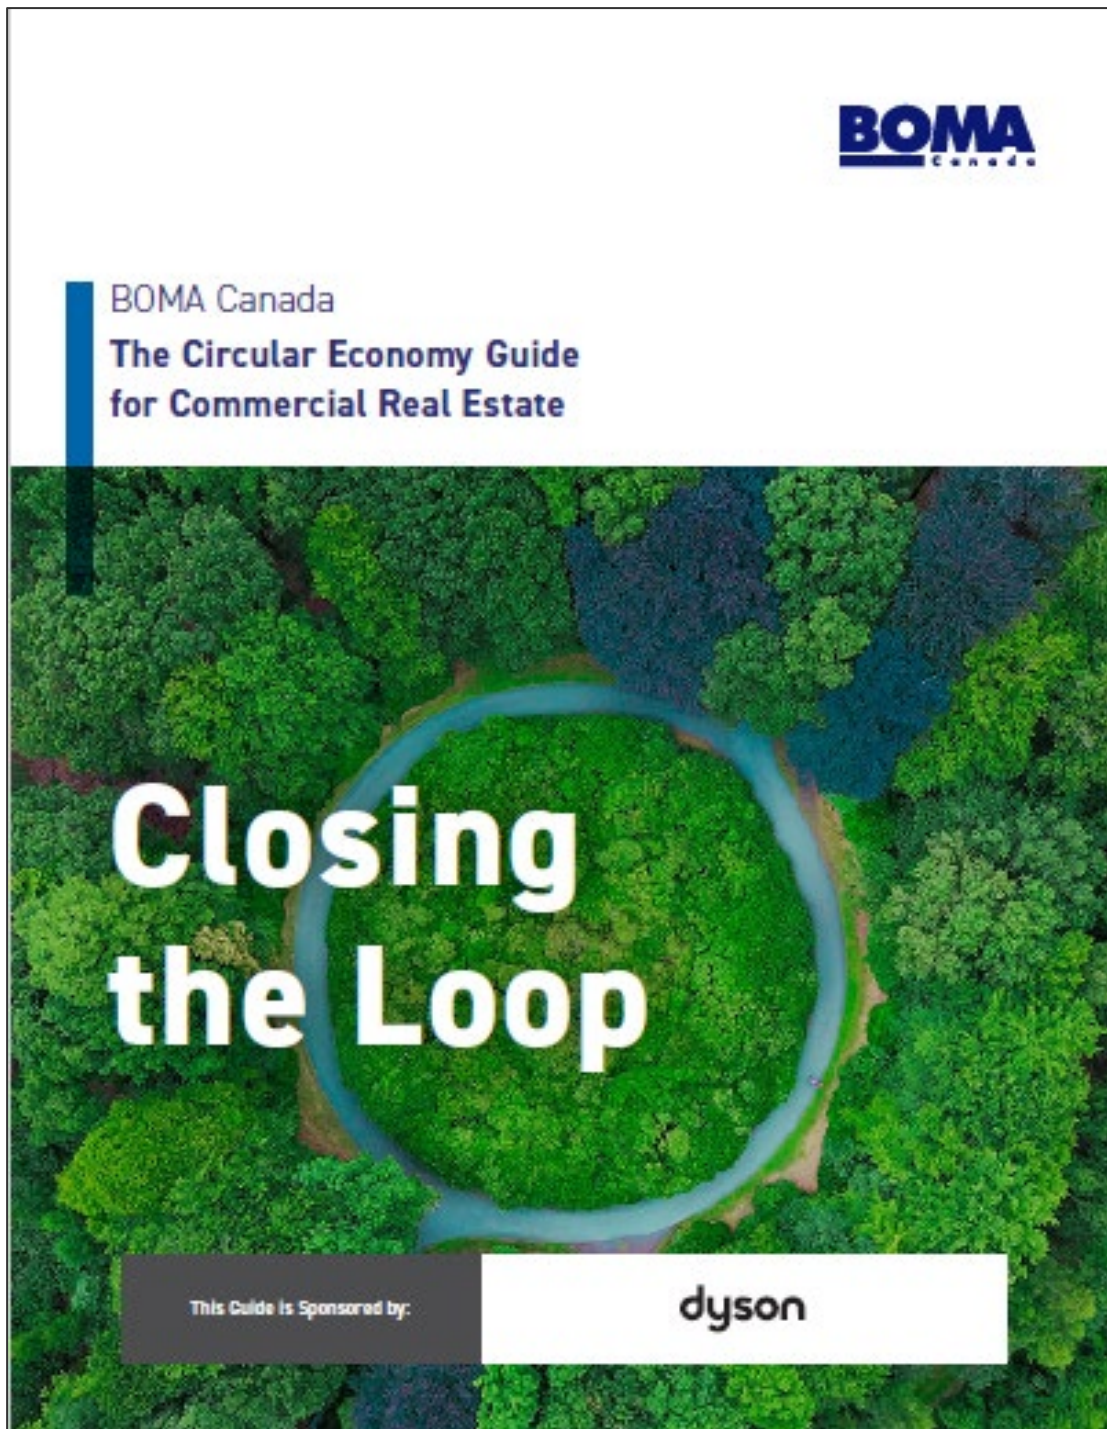

Utilities

Procurement

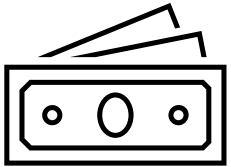

Engagement

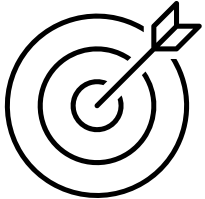

Areas of Opportunity	Starting Point: Existing Strengths	Next Steps
Food and catering	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Suppliers are selected who demonstrate commitment to sustainability</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Select suppliers that:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Use regenerative food growing methods</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Use locally sourced ingredients</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Prevent avoidable food waste</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Find value from food and food waste, such as through partnerships with local food banks, farms.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Avoid material waste (e.g., packaging)</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Waste management	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Waste diversion programs are implemented</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Change procurement criteria to require vendor take-back</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Select suppliers that support reverse logistics to recover and return materials to manufacturers</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Identify partners who can use certain waste streams as their inputs</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Use local digestors and other clean technologies that capture the value of organic waste streams, such as bio-digestion, heat recovery, mineral extraction and compost for on-site food production or general soil amendment.</li> </ul>

Benefits for Building Managers & Owners

Reduce Costs

Achieve Sustainability
Objectives

Increase Engagement

Enhance long-term value